Food recall on Old Dutch brand Cheddar and Sour Cream potato chips

December 21, 2016
Iqaluit, NU

The Department of Health is warning about a food recall on Old Dutch brand Cheddar and Sour Cream potato chips due to possible contamination with the Salmonella bacteria.

Food contaminated with Salmonella may not look or smell spoiled but can still make you sick. Young children, pregnant women, the elderly and people with weakened immune systems may contract serious and sometimes deadly infections. Healthy people may experience short-term symptoms such as fever, headache, vomiting, nausea, abdominal cramps and diarrhea. Long-term complications may include severe arthritis.

All recalled products should be thrown out or returned to the location where they were purchased.

For more information, contact the Canadian Food Inspection Agency at 1-800-442-2342 or visit www.inspection.gc.ca.
