End Date: August 18, 2015
Iqaluit, NU 60 sec

Do you want to learn to do something new? The Government of Nunavut Department of Environment is offering weekly “Learn to…” events at Sylvia Grinnell Territorial Park in Iqaluit this summer! Different activities are planned for every Tuesday afternoon from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. between now and mid-August.

Some of the “Learn to…” events include:

- Learn to light a qulliq;
- Learn to use a GPS; and
- Learn about traditional plant uses.

All events take place rain or shine; if the weather is bad, activities will be in the Park pavilion.

Nunavut Parks encourages healthy outdoor living and connecting people to nature. For more information, please visit the Department of Environment’s website at env.gov.nu.ca, or contact Leesee Papatsie at 867-975 7727 or lpapatsie@gov.nu.ca.
