Condolences to Family of Constable Douglas Scott

IQALUIT, Nunavut (November 6, 2007) – On behalf of Nunavummiut, Premier Paul Okalik extends his sincere sympathies to the family, friends and colleagues of RCMP Constable Douglas Scott.

"The tragic death this morning of Constable Douglas Scott has deeply saddened me and I extend my deepest sympathies to his family, friends and the officers who served with him," said Premier Okalik. "We have lost a kind and heroic young man. My thoughts and prayers are with you."

Early morning November 6, 2007 Constable Scott was shot and killed in the line of duty in Kimmirut, Nunavut.

"I appreciate the continued selfless efforts of the members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in keeping our communities secure and safe. In times like these, we are reminded of their bravery and commitment to us and all Canadians."
