APTN phone in TV Special on language legislation: August 28th

August 27, 2008 – Have you heard what is happening to the Inuit language? Made-in-Nunavut language legislation has been introduced in the Territorial legislature to protect and promote our language. These laws will have a significant impact on the life of Nunavummiut in every community.

Find out more about the language legislation on an APTN phone in TV special. Minister Louis Tapardjuk and Languages Commissioner Eva Aariak will be on the program to answer your questions.

Watch APTN on August 28 beginning at 9 pm Eastern Time.
