Premier makes minor shuffle to Cabinet

IQALUIT, Nunavut (November 30, 2012) – Premier Eva Aariak today announced a change in Cabinet portfolios.

Effective immediately, Human Resources Minister Monica Ell will take on the additional role of Minister Responsible for Qulliq Energy Corporation.

Minister Lorne Kusugak will remain Government House Leader, Minister of Community and Government Services (CGS) and Minister Responsible for the Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission.

"This move helps to better balance workloads between Ministers," said Premier Aariak. "Minister Ell is looking forward to taking on this new challenge, while Minister Kusugak will continue to focus on CGS, including the recently incorporated Sport and Recreation."
