Right to Know Week is from September 23-27, 2013 in Canada!

The Government of Nunavut wants all Nunavummiut to know that you have a right to access information held by the government, including the right to access your own personal information held by the government.

Your right to access information serves as a way to encourage openness, transparency and good government.

If you would like to access information from the government, or have questions about your right to know, please visit the Government of Nunavut website at www.gov.nu.ca and click on "I need: ATIPP info". You can also call us at 867-975-6044.

Ask questions and get informed. You have a right to know!
