As part of the Uqausirmut Quviasuutiqarniq Celebrations, the Department of Culture and Heritage is launching an Inuktitut comedy book titled, "Iglarnaqtut!"

This new publication is a collection of hilarious stories by 10 Nunavummiut written in Inuktitut, both in syllabics and roman orthography. Some of the stories will air on CBC North during Uqausirmut Quviasuutiqarniq.

The authors of the stories are:

- Mususi Ainalik
- Kulluarjuk Simeonie Pootoogook
- Annie Audlaluk
- Olassie Machmer
- Eva Nukapiak
- Dominic Angutimmarik
- Lena Akittiq Angutirjuaq
- Julia Amagoalik
- Hilarie Makpah
- Imelda Angootealuk

This year's celebrations of Inuktitut are held from February 17 to 28 under the theme, "Our language keeps our culture strong". The Government of Nunavut invites all Nunavummiut to practice, teach, and promote Inuktitut at home, school, daycare, work, on the radio and the internet. Each time you use Inuktitut, you help to keep our language and culture strong.
