The Department of Family Services is now accepting funding proposals for community-based projects that provide ongoing services for men and boys, or the development of new initiatives to promote the health and healing of men and boys.

These initiatives are a pilot project in response to outcomes from the men and boy’s gatherings that occurred in 2016-2017.

Individuals, community non-profit organizations and municipal corporations can apply to receive funding. Projects should:

- Increase community capacity for existing men and boy’s groups with a focus on building traditional and/or community knowledge and skills, and addressing trauma, or;
- Build community capacity to create new groups for men and boys with a focus on building traditional and/or community knowledge and skills, and addressing trauma.

If you have questions or would like help completing your application, please contact Lily Zhang, Family Violence Project Assistant at 867-975-5229 or email FS-FVP-IQ@gov.nu.ca. You can also visit the Department’s website at <http://www.gov.nu.ca/family-services> . Proposals should not exceed $20,000.

Please note the deadline to apply is August 18, 2017 at 5 pm EST.
