October is National Principals' Month

Start date: October 3, 2017
End date: October 31, 2017
Nunavut-wide

October is National Principals' Month. This is your opportunity to say thank you to a principal in your community and share some of the amazing things that your principal does to make your school number one!

The Department of Education encourages students, teachers, parents communities to recognize visionary principal leadership in schools across Nunavut. Principals can have a profound impact and this month-long celebration is an opportunity to celebrate principal leadership as a vital tool to school success.

Nominate an outstanding principal in your community and they can be nationally recognized by attending an executive leadership training program for principals in Canada. For more information, go to: <http://thelearningpartnership.ca/cop>

All nominations must be submitted by October 31, 2017.
