Would you like to become a trained coach?

Whether you're interested in coaching a community sports team or Nunavut's athletes at the Arctic Winter Games, you can now register for the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP). The NCCP home study program is designed for all types of coaches and can be completed on your time, at home!

The sport and recreation division of the Department of Community and Government Services is now accepting registrations for the NCCP Home Study Program.

The deadline to register is September 27, 2017.

For more information, please contact the Sport and Recreation division toll-free at 1-888-765-5506 or by email at SportProgramRegistration@gov.nu.ca.
