Tiituqatigiikta – Let's have tea together, is a series of afternoon drop-in sessions during March, organized by the Department of Family Services and the Qayuqtuvik Food Centre.

The sessions are open to anyone who would like to gather, share information, and ask questions about services like how to file taxes, or how to apply for a social insurance number or public housing unit.

The sessions run from March 1- 29, 2018, from 1- 4 p.m. at the Iqaluit Food Centre (soup kitchen), building 655. Cooking classes and cultural programming will also be available when possible, and snacks and tea will be provided.

The Department of Family Services is working with Government of Nunavut departments and agencies, Inuit associations and community organizations to lead the sessions and answer questions.

For more information, or to receive a calendar of events for the month, please contact Robert Herrick, Community Engagement Planner at 867-975-5239 or Rherrick@gov.nu.ca.
