The Department of Education is inviting Nunavut youth between the ages of 13 to 18, including post-secondary students, to apply for the Explore Official Languages Program.

Explore is a free three to five week French immersion experience happening this summer with options to complete the program online or in-person in locations across Canada.

In this program, students learn and practice French language skills and strengthen their understanding of Francophone culture. No previous French language experience is required.

Deadline to apply is May 31, 2022. Apply now to give yourself the best chance to secure a spot!
