Careers and job openings with Nunavut Corrections

Start Date: August 15, 2022 End Date: August 24, 2022

Nunavut-wide 30 sec

Are you looking for a challenging and rewarding career devoted to helping others?

Nunavut Corrections is ready to hire you! The Corrections Division of the Department of Justice offers jobs and careers for caseworkers, counsellors, nurses, cooks, and instructors who are ready to share their knowledge. Corrections serves clients of all ages at facilities in Nunavut and provides justice outreach services throughout the territory.

The division offers seven weeks of paid training and career development for positions at correctional healing facilities located in Iqaluit, Rankin Inlet and Kugluktuk.

The skills you gain with experience working in corrections are highly transferable and can build career opportunities in both the government and private sector.
