The Department of Justice is continuing its community consultations on the Family Abuse Intervention Act (FAIA).

FAIA exists to assist people in need of protection from family abuse or the threat of family abuse. This act promotes community ownership and empowers the community to confidently work with local resources to address social problems.

Community consultations will be held in the following communities with refreshments being provided:

- Cambridge Bay, Thursday April 7, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Elder's Palace.
- Cambridge Bay, Friday, April 8, 1:30 to 5 p.m. in the NCC Building.
- Gjoa Haven, Monday, April 11, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Hamlet Chambers.

For more information about the upcoming consultations, or for individuals unable to attend and who wish to provide their feedback, please contact FAIA@gov.nu.ca or 867-975-6170.
