Kinngait Family Wellness office temporarily closed

Start Date: June 29, 2023

End Date: July 17, 2023

Kinngait, Nunavut

60 sec

The Department of Family Services is advising residents of Kinngait of a temporary closure of the Family Wellness office effective June 29 until July 17, 2023, due to staff shortages.

During the temporary closure, limited staffing resources will be available to provide emergent and some restricted services, such as family visits and assisting clients to and from appointments.

Please continue to call the Family Wellness On-Call number. A list of contact numbers for Family Wellness Offices across the territory can be found on the Government of Nunavut website. For emergencies, contact your local RCMP.

Service reductions or closures are subject to change based on staff availability.

The Department of Family Services is working with government and territorial partners to ensure Nunavummiut have access to necessary services while addressing staff shortages.
