Kugluktuk Family Wellness office temporarily closed

Start date: May 18, 2023

End date: May 24, 2023

Kugluktuk, Nunavut

60 sec

The Department of Family Services is advising residents of Kugluktuk of a temporary closure of the Family Wellness office effective immediately until May 24, 2023, due to staff shortages.

During the temporary closure, limited staffing resources will be available to provide emergent and some restricted services, such as family visits and assisting clients to and from appointments.

Expect delays when contacting the Family Wellness Office on-call number. A list of contact numbers for Family Wellness Offices across the territory can be found on the Government of Nunavut website. For emergencies, contact your local RCMP.

Service reductions or closures are subject to change based on staff availability.

The Department of Family Services is working with partners to ensure Nunavummiut have access to necessary services while addressing staff shortages.
