Reminder: Online Scams – Buyer Beware

Start Date: April 22, 2024

End Date: April 26, 2024

Nunavut-wide

45 sec

The Department of Community and Government Services' Consumer Affairs division would like to remind Nunavummiut of potential online scams.

There are many potential scams, but there are also protections available to help you safely conduct online transactions for goods and services.

Always verify the identity of the seller and refrain from responding to suspicious communications, such as unsolicited calls, messages, and emails.

If you think you are the target of a scam, or if you want to report one, the Better Business Bureau has a scam tracker tool on its website.

To report incidents of scam and fraud, contact Consumer Affairs at ConsumerProtection@gov.nu.ca or 1-866-223-8139 (toll free), or your local RCMP Detachment.
