The Department of Community and Government Services (CGS) is accepting applications for the Technical Professional Scholarship Program for 2024-25. This scholarship is to incentivize post-secondary study in a field related to CGS's unique technical and professional role within the Government of Nunavut.

To successfully meet this year's scholarship program assessment criteria, students must submit the following:

- Application Form including proof of residence and/or enrolment under the Nunavut Agreement.
- Confirmation of full-time registration from the Office of the Registrar of the accredited post-secondary institution.
- A 250-to-500-word submission detailing the reason the applicant chose their program of study, and the contribution they expect to make within their community after completing the program, including when they expect to complete the program.

For more information regarding eligible programs, funding guidelines and scholarship timelines please visit the Technical Professional Studies webpage.

The application deadline is September 30, 2024. Please submit complete applications to CGSHR@gov.nu.ca.
