Reduced services at Kugluktuk health centre due to temporary staff shortage

Start Date: August 13, 2024

End Date: September 2, 2024

Kugluktuk, Nunavut

60 sec

The Department of Health is advising residents of Kugluktuk of reduced services at the health centre effective immediately until September 3 due to staff shortages.

The health centre remains open for emergencies, same-day urgent appointments, Telehealth appointments, scheduled follow-ups, blood work, x-rays, medical travel and prescription refills.

All routine appointments will be rescheduled to the first week of September and patients will be contacted with new appointment information.

Service reductions or closures are subject to change based on staff availability.

The Department of Health is working with government and territorial partners to ensure Nunavummiut have access to necessary health services while addressing staff shortages.
