Do you need financial support to reach your post-secondary education goals?

If you are applying to college or university to start a post-secondary program in the Spring/Summer 2024 semester, the deadline to apply for FANS is March 1, 2024.

Late applications will be accepted until April 1, 2024; however, your funding application may not be processed before you start school. So, apply by the March 1 deadline to better ensure that your funding application is processed before you start school.
