Adult Learning and Training Support (ALTS) spring/summer application deadline

Start Date: February 19, 2024

End Date: March 1, 2024

Nunavut-wide

30 sec

If you're new to the workforce, or need help starting your career, consider applying for Adult Learning and Training Supports (ALTS), which provides financial relief while you pursue training and/or upgrading.

Training funded through ALTS falls under two categories:

- Training that leads directly to employment opportunities.
- Training for work readiness or skills upgrading.

If you intend to begin college or university in the Spring or Summer of 2024, it's important to apply to ALTS by March 1, 2024.

Applications received after this deadline will still be considered until April 1, 2024. However, submitting your application late may result in processing delays that could affect the start of your school term. To ensure your funding is arranged before your classes commence, please apply by the March 1, 2024, deadline.

For more information or to receive an application form, visit the ALTS webpage.
