May 6 to 10, 2024, is Teacher Appreciation Week! Let's show our gratitude and appreciation for the amazing educators who dedicate their lives to shaping our future generations.

In Nunavut, we have almost 900 teachers. They work tirelessly to educate and inspire our children and youth. These dedicated individuals play a crucial role in building a brighter tomorrow for our communities.

Let's come together this Teacher Appreciation Week to express our heartfelt gratitude to those who go above and beyond to nurture young minds, instill knowledge, and inspire lifelong learning. Whether it's a simple thank you, a handmade card, or a thoughtful gesture, every act of appreciation counts.

Join us in celebrating our incredible educators and let's make this Teacher Appreciation Week one they'll remember.
