Second call for proposals – Culture and Heritage Grants and Contributions for 2024-2025

Start Date: October 28, 2024 End Date: December 15, 2024

Nunavut-wide 90 sec

The Department of Culture and Heritage is currently accepting applications for Youth and Elders Committees Grants, Elders and Youth Facilities Contributions, and Inuit Language Promotion and Protection Contributions.

Community-based, non-profit organizations, municipal corporations, and individuals looking for financial support can apply to receive funding in these program areas:

- Youth and Elders Committees Examples of the activities that are supported include but are not limited to, youth and Elders' committees, country food feasts, storytelling programs, hunting, traditional toolmaking, and sewing activities.
 Note: Individuals are ineligible to apply for these grants.
- Elders and Youth Facilities Contributions For the development and/or renovation of Elders' and youth facilities or relevant associated equipment. This program helps to ensure that communities across Nunavut have access to well-maintained facilities that enable Elders and youth to participate in social and cultural activities. Supported facilities include, but are not limited to, Elders' gathering facilities, youth centres, and wellness centres.
 Note: Individuals are ineligible to apply for these contributions.
- Inuit Language Promotion and Protection Contributions For those who want to undertake activities that foster the use, teaching, development, promotion, or preservation of Inuktut at the community level and help increase public awareness and appreciation of the history, use, status, importance, and diversity of Inuktut in Nunavut, such as during Uqausirmut Quviasuutiqarniq, Nunavut's Celebration of Inuktut.

Project activities must take place between November 2024 to March 31, 2025. Apply today! The deadline for applications is December 15, 2024, at 5 p.m. EST
