Celebrating Nunavut Education Week

Start Date: October 1, 2024 End Date: October 5, 2024

Nunavut-wide 60 sec

It's Nunavut Education Week! This is a great opportunity to recognize the vital role education plays in the lives of students and Nunavummiut. This week, and in particular World Teacher's Day, October 5, is also a time to highlight our hard-working, dedicated educators, who lead the way in student growth and development. We thank you for choosing to teach in Nunavut.

This year's theme is "Qilaut and Qatuk: Students and Teachers Setting the Rhythm for the Future." Just as the qilaut and qatuk depend on each other to create beautiful music, so too do students and teachers rely on each other to foster a harmonious learning environment. Both are essential in setting the rhythm for a vibrant and successful school community.

To help with the celebrations, the department is providing a Nunavut Education Week Grant of $1000 to each District Education Authority and Commission scolaire francophone du Nunavut to help reduce the cost associated with running events during the week.

Join the Department of Education in celebrating the contribution that all staff and volunteers make to their schools and communities!
