Public Service Announcement

Sanikiluaq Income Assistance Office opens at new location; assessments are available with an appointment

Start Date: August 8, 2025
End Date: August 22, 2025
Sanikiluaq 30 sec

A reminder that the new Sanikiliuaq Income Assistance Office, located in the Hamlet Building, opened on May 1, 2025.

With the re-opening of the office, income assistance clients in Sanikiluaq will need to make an appointment with their local Income Assistance Workers to perform monthly assessments and remain eligible for income assistance.

To schedule or confirm your appointment, please contact the Sanikiluaq Income Assistance Office at 867-266-8393.

All existing clients and new applicants must bring the required documents to their appointments, including:

- Valid identification
- Bank statements for the full previous month (1st to 31st)
- Paystubs
- Proof of all income
- Information on rent and utility expenses

The Department of Family Services has zero tolerance for aggressive or abusive behaviour in Income Assistance offices or toward Income Assistance staff. Individuals who engage in such behaviour may be asked to leave the premises or may be restricted from accessing in-person services.
