Community consultation for cannabis store relocation in Iqaluit

Start Date: February 18, 2026
End Date: March 17, 2026
Iqaluit, Nunavut 90 sec

The Office of the Superintendent of Licensing has received an application related to the relocation of an existing Enclosed Cannabis Store in Iqaluit.

The store is proposing to move from 760 Queen Elizabeth Way to 613 Mattaaq Crescent (former Tittaq location). The operating hours and type of store (enclosed) will remain the same.

An enclosed cannabis store is a place where cannabis is sold that is not accessible to the general public. Only adults 19 years of age and older are permitted to enter, and the store is designed to prevent access by minors.

Under the Cannabis Act, the Government of Nunavut must consult the community when an application is received. Due to the proposed relocation, the consultation period will be 30 days, from February 16 to March 17, 2026.

Residents are invited to submit their comments, concerns, or views regarding the proposed relocation by emailing cannabis@gov.nu.ca or by calling 867-975-6821. The deadline to submit feedback is 5 p.m. on March 17, 2026.
