Flags at half-mast to honour victims of Tumbler Ridge mass shooting

February 12, 2026
Iqaluit, Nunavut

Nunavut Premier John Main today released the following statement:

"Our thoughts are with the community of Tumbler Ridge, B.C., as it grieves and works to help those who were impacted by the mass shooting there.

In honour of those who lost their lives, I have requested that all flags at Government of Nunavut buildings fly at half-mast for seven days.

If you need support, speak to a family member, friend or Elder. Mental health resources are also available at the Government of Nunavut website."
