Family Services reaches agreement with Angirraq Corporation

Iqaluit, Nunavut (July 15, 2026) – The Department of Family Services has reached an agreement with Angirraq Corporation to extend their current service arrangement until end of 2026-27 fiscal year.

The extension ensures children and youth will continue to receive uninterrupted group home and support services. The department's priority remains the safety, stability and well-being of the youth in its care.

The department and Angirraq Corporation will conduct a comprehensive, joint review of program delivery and financial arrangements to ensure affected youth and families remain supported.

The department is committed to ensuring all contracted services are delivered in the best interests of children and youth. These services must be supported by the strong oversight, clear accountability and responsible stewardship of public resources that Nunavummiut expect and deserve.
