Fraud Prevention Month 2026

Start Date: March 2, 2026
End Date: March 31, 2026
Nunavut-wide 60 sec

March is Fraud Prevention Month, an annual campaign aimed to educate consumers on how to recognize, avoid and report fraud.

Throughout the month, weekly themes will highlight common fraud risks, including artificial intelligence scams, investment fraud, online scams, phone and mass marketing scams, and relationship fraud.

If you fall victim to frauds or scams, you may submit a consumer complaint to consumer affairs at ConsumerProtection@gov.nu.ca. Complaints are reviewed on a case-by-case basis, in coordination with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), and an assessment will be made about the level of investigation required.

Remember, it's the role of your local police to investigate. Do not take matters into your own hands. If you are a victim of fraud, or are aware of a scam, you may report it anonymously at https://reportcyberandfraud.canada.ca. Information you provide can assist police.

For more information about Fraud Prevention Month or to submit a consumer complaint, please contact consumer affairs at 1-866-223-8139 (toll-free), ConsumerProtection@gov.nu.ca or visit the File a Complaint page of the Government of Nunavut website. You can also visit the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre (CAFC) at: https://antifraudcentre-centreantifraude.ca/.

Stop. Think. Verify before you trust.
