The Department of Culture and Heritage is seeking nominations for 10 members to join the Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit Katimajiiit (IQK).

IQK is a committee of Elders that plays a crucial role in the development of policies, programs, and service delivery from the government by providing advice and knowledge about principled Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit approaches.

Members are appointed for three-year terms and aim to meet a minimum of three times annually. Cabinet and/or ministers may also call on the committee for advice when needed. Committee members also identify and record Inuit Maligangit to compile a repository of knowledge for the Government of Nunavut.

If you or someone you know is knowledgeable in Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit and interested in becoming a member of IQK, please fill out the attached nomination form and send it to Raigelee Alorut at ralorut1@gov.nu.ca.

For more information, please visit the Government of Nunavut website or contact ralorut1@gov.nu.ca.
