The Government of Nunavut (GN) is seeking applications from individuals interested in joining the Nunavummi Nangminiqaqtunik Ikajuuti (NNI) Appeals Tribunal on a three-year, part-time term.

The tribunal requires one industry representative of a legally operating business within Nunavut.

Duties include hearing contracting appeals based on the implementation of bid adjustments and Inuit employment/training scores within applicable Government of Nunavut procurement opportunities as per the NNI Regulations.

Preference to membership on the tribunal will be given to individuals with a background in training and/or experience in procurement law, procurement practices, government contracting or administrative law.

Members are subject to the Conflict of Interest Act, and will require disclosure of any conflicts of interest.

To apply, please send a resume to nni@gov.nu.ca by September 22, 2026.
